Dear Dr. Suryani:

Manuscript ID JIABR-03-2021-0103 entitled "Can Islamic work ethics encourage knowledge-sharing behaviors? The role of job embeddedness and organizational identification" which you submitted to the Journal of Islamic Accounting and Business Research, has been reviewed. The comments of the reviewer(s) are included at the bottom of this letter.

The reviewer(s) have recommended major revisions to the submitted manuscript, before it can be considered for publication. Therefore, I invite you to respond to the reviewer(s)' comments and revise your manuscript.

To revise your manuscript, log into <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jiabr> and enter your Author Centre, where you will find your manuscript title listed under "Manuscripts with Decisions." Under "Actions," click on "Create a Revision." Your manuscript number has been appended to denote a revision.

You will be unable to make your revisions on the originally submitted version of the manuscript. Instead, revise your manuscript using a word processing program and save it on your computer. Please also highlight the changes to your manuscript within the document by using the track changes mode in MS Word or by using bold or coloured text.

Once the revised manuscript is prepared, you can upload it and submit it through your Author Centre. The deadline for uploading a revised manuscript is 12-Sep-2021 from receiving this email. If it is not possible for you to resubmit your revision within this timeframe, we may have to consider your paper as a new submission.

When submitting your revised manuscript, you will be able to respond to the comments made by the reviewer(s) in the space provided. You can use this space to document any changes you make to the original manuscript. In order to expedite the processing of the revised manuscript, please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewer(s).

IMPORTANT: Your original files are available to you when you upload your revised manuscript. Please delete any redundant files before completing the submission.

Please note that Emerald requires you to clear permission to re-use any material not created by you. If there are permissions outstanding, please send these to Emerald as soon as possible. Emerald is unable to publish your paper with permissions outstanding.

To help support you on your publishing journey we have partnered with Editage, a leading global science communication platform, to offer expert editorial support including language editing and translation. If your article has been rejected or revisions have been requested, you may benefit from Editage's services. For a full list of services, visit: authorservices.emeraldpublishing.com/
Please note that there is no obligation to use Editage and using this service does not guarantee publication.

Once again, thank you for submitting your manuscript to the Journal of Islamic Accounting and Business Research and I look forward to receiving your revision.

5. Implications for research, practice and/or society: Does the paper identify clearly any implications for research, practice and/or society? Does the paper bridge the gap between theory and practice? How can the research be used in practice (economic and commercial impact), in teaching, to influence public policy, in research (contributing to the body of knowledge)? What is the impact upon society (influencing public attitudes, affecting quality of life)? Are these implications consistent with the findings and conclusions of the paper?: The explanation is relevant.

6. Quality of Communication: Does the paper clearly express its case, measured against the technical language of the field and the expected knowledge of the journal's readership? Has attention been paid to the clarity of expression and readability, such as sentence structure, jargon use, acronyms, etc.: The quality of communication is acceptable.

Reviewer: 2

Overall, the paper was well-written and very informative.

Additional Questions:

1. Originality: Does the paper contain new and significant information adequate to justify publication?: The paper has its own contribution to the body of knowledge.

2. Relationship to Literature: Does the paper demonstrate an adequate understanding of the relevant literature in the field and cite an appropriate range of literature sources? Is any significant work ignored?: The literature was improved and is adequate.

3. Methodology: Is the paper's argument built on an appropriate base of theory, concepts, or other ideas? Has the research or equivalent intellectual work on which the paper is based been well designed? Are the methods employed appropriate?: Relevant and well-designed.

4. Results: Are results presented clearly and analysed appropriately? Do the conclusions adequately tie together the other elements of the paper?: The results are comprehensive and clearly presented.

5. Implications for research, practice and/or society: Does the paper identify clearly any implications for research, practice and/or society? Does the paper bridge the gap between theory and practice? How can the research be used in practice (economic and commercial impact), in teaching, to influence public policy, in research (contributing to the body of knowledge)? What is the impact upon society (influencing public attitudes, affecting quality of life)? Are these implications consistent with the findings and conclusions of the paper?: Clearly discussed and cleverly presented. The implications were consistent with the findings.

Dear Emerald Team

We've done proofing and passed the error on writing the name of the 4th author at the top of the article. It should be "Amelia Oktrivina" like in the author's profile.

Dear Emerald Team

As we said in the previous email, there is an error in the name of the 4th author, it should be "Amelia Oktrivina", as it is in the author's profile. But today we saw the early cite version at <https://www.emerald.com/insight/content/doi/10.1108/JIABR-03-2021-0103/full/html>, the name is still "Ameia Oktrivina". (lack of letter L)

Please correct and we are waiting for further information

Dear Suryani Uin,

Thank you for your email.

Since your article is published online this will be treated as post publication correction request and I will raise this to Journal Production Coordinator (JPC) Moya Clark for further action. Please note that post-publication requests are not always guaranteed, the JPC will need to review the proposed amendment before it is authorised. In instances where the author information is significantly altered, we may require a COPE investigation to be conducted before we can confirm whether the post-publication amendment has been authorised or not.

Best wishes,
