ABSTRACT

Nisa Nur Padlah.201230073.” Improving Student’s Speaking Skill Using Digital Book Let’s Read Asia for Seventh Grade Junior High School in SMPN 5 Sobang. (A Quasi Experimental Research at Seventh Grade of SMPN 5 Sobang)

This study aims to improve the speaking ability of seventh grade students at SMPN 5 Sobang through the use of the Digital Book Let's Read Asia application. The sample of this study involved 60 students, who were divided into two classes: 30 students as the control class(VII B) and 30 students as the experimental class(VII A). The research method used was a quantitative quasi-experimental. This study was conducted by providing three treatments, accompanied by a pre-test and post-test. The result shows that the score of degrees of freedom ($df = 58$), with a significance level of 5%. By comparing the results of $t_{\text{observation}}$ of 4.85 with t_{table} of 2.00 at a significance level of 5%, the writer concludes that $t_{\text{observation}}$ was accepted and the null hypothesis (H_0) was rejected. This shows that the use of the Digital Book Let's Read Asia application significantly improves students' speaking ability.
