

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents conclusion and suggestion. The conclusion is the result obtained. Suggestion are proposed to the English teachers, seventh graders in junior high school students, and the next researcher.

A. CONCLUSION

After the researcher conducted the research it can be concluded that the implementation of Cooperative Learning Two Stay Two Stray Technique to improve students reading comprehension on descriptive text is successful, it was proven by result in cycle I and cycle II, there was an increase in the quality of learning and student scores from cycle one to cycle two. It shows that the result mean of the cycle I score is 64, 03 and cycle 2 is 80,31, its mean the Implementation of TSTS technique is successful, because it has exceeded the minimum completeness criteria that must be achieved. So it can be inferred that the TSTS technique is good at improving students' reading comprehension.

B. SUGGESTION

This research is useful for English teachers to improve students' reading comprehension inside and outside the classroom. Although, there are many other strategies that can be used in the teaching and learning process and the TSTS technique is an alternative method to improve students' reading comprehension.

After completing this research, the researcher has several suggestions for improving students' reading comprehension. Especially for the teachers, the students and the readers, the researcher's suggestions are as follows:

1. For teacher

The teacher has an important role in the teaching and learning process. He/she can act as an advisor, listener and positive figure for his students. The teacher must be able to make the classroom atmosphere pleasant and comfortable to make students understand in learning the material. Teacher encouragement is needed by students to make them become motivated in learning English. The teacher must have several strategies so that students' reading comprehension increases, especially in learning English.

2. For students

Students must be brave and confident in pronounce English words. One thing that important is that students must read often, even though they do not understand the meaning but, it will make them accustomed and become a small step to master the English language. Students must have a high curiosity. Like memorizing vocabulary and listening to English songs, reading articles on social media, newspapers, and others.

3. For next researcher

The researcher acknowledges that there are many shortcomings in conducting this research. The researchers state that, this paper is far from perfect. This happens because of many factors, such as lack of time and preparation. The researcher hopes that the next researcher can prepare everything well and must observe with full concentration.

C. CLOSING

Give thanks to Allah, the Lord of the worlds, who gave grace to researcher to complete this paper. Although, there are many mistakes that researchers make and this paper is far from perfect. This is all because of the shortcomings that researchers have. The researcher hopes this paper can be useful and ask for corrections and suggestions for the future.
