benefit of other or for the sake of duty. The person judge the other person has good moral value if they always obey the rules in the society. Human in the world should have good moral value.

Media are the plural of medium, a means of communication. It comes from the latin medium; this term refers to anything that carries information between a source and a receiver. Video and film demonstrate communicative language within a language environment and cultural context. Video, especially film, provides a social context for English language learner; it can be played either with the sound on, so that students hear the language being spoken, or alternative, with the sound off, so that learner can use their own language skills to provide the dialog or narrative.

The second powerful lesson found in frozen is that of familial love, how far family will go to protect one another. The main character in this movie are Elsa and Ana. They make great sacrifices for the other, sometimes to devastating effect, showing the power of love for one’s family. According to those explanations the purpose of this research is to analyze the moral values in frozen movie. It is expected that this research can give new knowledge to the reader about moral values from the movie.

Therefore, based on the problem above, the researcher would like to conduct the study about moral values in a movie under the title “

REVIEW OF RELATED THEORIES

In this chapter the writer would like to present sub chapter of moral values, definition of moral, definition of value, description of moral value and types of moral value.

A. Moral Value

1. Definition of Moral Value

Judgement are verbally embodied in statements, sentences that assert that something is or is not the case and therefore be true or false.\(^\text{11}\) As we shall see there are different kinds of judgements; moral(and aesthentic) judgements are commonly called value judgements. There are disverse opinions to the nature of value judgements and many philosophers would that value judgements are genuine judgements, in that they would deny that judgements of moral(and aesthentic) content are assertions.\(^\text{12}\) Moral values related to the people’s judgements to the other. They judge based on existing regulations in the community itself. People who good morals that means they abide by the rules that exist in the community. In addition, they also have good behavior.

\(^{11}\) Jennifer Trusted, Moral Principles and Social Values,(London : Routledge & Kegan Paul Ltd,1987), 6

\(^{12}\) Jennifer Trusted, Moral Principles and Social Values,7
Moral values related to human behavior and personality. Baside that, the moral value are, also associated with human nature. In society, people will judge in a good value when they have good behavior, personality, and nature. In addition they also always obey to the rules of that society. In order that children can have good moral behavior, parents should teach good things to their children. Parents should set a good example to their children. Moral value is evaluation of action belived by members a given society to the right. Then, there are four charateristic of moral value. There are as following.

1. Moral value is related with responsibility

   Moral value is related with human personality, but beside moral value we also automatically can say other values. Moral value makes people wrong or not, because he/she responsibility. Especially moral value is related with human personality of responsibility. Moral value just can be real in action wholly if it became of the involved person.

2. Moral value is related with pure heart

   All values need to make it real. Because it has persuasive power, it should be practice. For example, aesthentic value, it should be practiced, play music composition or other. After that the result of it, painting want to be showed, and

14 K. bertens, Etika, 143-147
music want to be listened. To make moral value to be real, it can be appealed from pure heart. One of special characteristic of moral values is this value will effect voice of pure heart to accuse use if oppose moral value and praise us if make moral value.

3. Obligation

Moral value obligates us absolutely and cant be compromised. Other values need to be real and admitted, for example, aestentic value. Education and cultural person will admit and enjoy aesthentic value. But indifferent people can’t we blame. Moral value obligates us as such, without requirement. For example, honestly orders us to return things that borrowed, like or not, because moral value contains an imperative category. In other value for example, if badminton player want be champion, but there is a limitation.

4. Formality

Moral values is not stand-alone without other value. Although moral value is top value that we must appreciate, but it is not top without other value. Moral values did not separate with other values. For example, a seller applies moral values all at once apply economic values. Moral values are nothing without other values. It is form of formality.

If we take right (and laws) as the embodiment of obligations and duties than we can appreciate that they are determined by our moral principles and social values. They also help to mould those principles and values; there is interdependence as with morality and the law. The problem of right is the problem of deciding where our social obligations lie and this will depend on our social values.\footnote{Veugelers, W. (2008), \textit{Moral values in teacher education}. Netherlands: University of Amsterdam.}

2. \textbf{Type of moral value}

Moral values are values that express ideas about good life. There is constant debate about which values constitute the good life. Aristoteles introduced the idea in his NicomanchenEthnics, and there is continuous by a certain value.\footnote{J trusted, 157} First moral knowing. Moral is a moral containing six important things, namely: moral awareness, knowing the moral values, perspective-taking, moral reasoning, decision-making, and self-knowledge. Second moral feeling. Moral feeling is the source of energy from human being to act based on moral principles. There are six important things is an aspect that could be capable of emotions felt by a person to be a moral human being and character, namely: conscience, self-esteem, empathy, loving the God, self-control and humanity. The last is moral action. Moral action is moral that be transformed into real action. According to Lickona, the main of moral value are respect and responsibility, but there are other specific values. There are: Honesty, justice, tolerance, wisdom, self-discipline, help each other, cooperation, and democratic. There are two kinds of value. They are value of being and value of giving. Both of them have each kind of moral value, they are as following.

1. Value of being

   Value of begun with the development of a quality or an attitude within ourselves that determines how behave and how we treat of others. It includes:

   a. Honesty

   b. Bravery /courage

c. Peace ability

Calmness, peacefulness, serenity, the tendency to try to accommodate rather than argue. The understanding that differences are seldom resolved through conflict and that meanness in others is an indication of their problem or insecurity and thus of their need for your understanding. The ability to understand how others feel rather than simply reacting to them control of temper.

d. Self reliance (Confidence) and potential

Individually, awareness and development of gifts and uniqueness. Talking responsibility for own actions. Overcoming the tendency to blame others for difficulties, commitment to personal excellence.

e. Self-discipline and moderation

2. Value of giving
The values of giving is that values to be practiced or provided which would then be accepted as a given. It originates as gift to others and then goes on to influence who we are. Values of giving include.

a. Loyalty and Dependability (Trustworthy)

Loyalty to family, to employers, to country, church, school, and other organizations in which commitments are made. Support, service, contribution. Reliability and consistency in doing what you say you will do.

b. Respect

c. Love and affection

d. Justice (fair) and mercy (humane)
Obedience to law, fairness in work and play. An understanding of natural consequences and the law of the harvest. A grasp of mercy and forgiveness and understanding of the futility (and bitter poison) of carrying a grudge.

B. Movie

1. Definition of Movie

Movie is motion picture includes photographs, picture and audio visual. A movie or which project in a screen by a projector for process in turning in a screen that cause appearance in screen look natural movement.\textsuperscript{18} Movies, also known as films, are type of visual communication which use moving picture and sound to tell stories or inform( help people to learn)\textsuperscript{19}

Films furthermore presupopose a cinematic space that is both physical and discursive, one where film and spectator, cinema and body encounter one another. Each type of cinema (as well as every film theory) imagines an ideal spectator, which means it postulates a certain relation between the (body of the) spectator and the (properties of the) image on the screen, however much at first sight the highlighted terms are “understanding” and “making sense” interpretation and comprehension. What is called classical narrative cinema, for instance, can be defined by the way a given film engages address and envelops the spectatorial body.

2. Frozen Movie

Frozen is a 2013 America 3D animated musical fantasy comedy-drama film, created and produced at Walt Disney Animation Studios and distributed by Walt Disney Studios Motion Pictures. The film uses the same style as Tangled. It is the 53rd animated feature in the Disney animated Canon. It also features the 21st and 13th members of the Disney Princess line-up, Anna and Elsa. It is the fifth film in, what is generally considered the Disney revival era.

Frozen underwent numerous story treatments for several years, before finally being commissioned in 2011, with screenplay written by Jennifer Lee, and both Chris Buck and she serving as directors. The film features the voice of Kristen Bell as Anna and Idina Manzel as her older sister Elsa the snow queen, in both speaking and singing roles, along with Jonathan Groff playing the role of mountain man Kristoff, Josh Gad as Olaf the Snowman, and Santino Fontana as Prince Hans of the southern isles. Christophe Beck, who had worked on Walt Disney Animation Studios award-winning short Paperman, was hired to compose the film score, while husband and wife songwriting team Robert Lopez and Kristen Anderson-Lopez wrote the original songs.\textsuperscript{21}

This film inspired by Hans Christian Andersen’s tale the snow queen.”Frozen” is a great big pleasure with an emotionally gripping core, brilliant Broadway-style songs and a crafty plot. It tells the story of a brave princess who have a strangers sister. The stranger sister has magic power she can produce ice from her hands. But if she can’t control her power, it can make a big problem for herself.

Frozen is a fairytale about true love. But this time, the prime love in play is between sisters, not a young and blushing couple. In frozen, love not only make everything better, it makes us better, too. As we’re told by a passel of singing trolls “we’re only saying that love, of course, is powerful and strange/throw a little love their and you’ll bring out their best/ the love brings out their best.\textsuperscript{22}

Directed by Chris Bucs for bestk and Jennifer Lee, frozen has grossed almost1.2bn worldwide. It has won Oscar for best song and best animated feature, Disney animation first since the category was introduced in 2002. Disney official you tube clip of let it go has racked up more than 223m view cover versions, mash-ups and parodies amount to hundred of million more. The soundtrack has topped the billboard

\textsuperscript{22}Paul Asay, ”Frozen” Movie review,(online), (http://www.pluggedin.com/movie-review/frozen-2013), accessed in 29 may 2015 charts for 13 weeks and counting. Disney second-quarter net profit is up 27%. A stage musical is in the work. A sequel is yet to be cofired, but is as inevitable as sunrise.\textsuperscript{23} The reason I chose this title is because this film is my favorite and this film is very interesting to analyze. In the film also teacher a lot of moral values in life and in education, in contrast to other 3D Animated films, it can be conclude that moral values found in this movie are: hard working, cooperation, humanity, self control, confidence, responsibility, loyalty and patience.

C. Theories of literary Element

Movie is the telling of stories which are real. Movie usually adapted from a novel, by producer it is make a real character of actor and actress.

The literary of elements movie is almost same, there are:

1. Character

Character is a participant in the story, and is usually a person, but may be any personal, identify, or entity whose existence originates from a fictional work or performance.\textsuperscript{24}

Character may be of several types:

\textsuperscript{23}Dorian Lysnkey,"Frozen Mania : how elsa,anna ,and Olaf concequered the world,(http://www.theguardian.com/film/2014/may/13/froozen-mania-elsa-anna-olaf-disney-emo-princess-let-it-go) accessed in 29 June03.00

- Point of view character: the character from whose perspective (theme) the audience experiences the story. This is the character that represents the point of view the audience will empathize with, or at the very least, sympathize with. Therefore, this is the main character.

- Protagonist: the driver of the action of the story and therefore responsible for achieving the story's objective (the surface journey). In western storytelling tradition, the protagonist is usually the main character.

- Antagonist: the character that stand in opposition to the protagonist.

- Supporting character: a character that plays a part in the plot but is not major.

- Minor character: a character in a bit/cameo part.

2. Plot

Plot or storyline is the rendering of the events and actions of a story. On micro level, plot consists of action and reaction, also referred to as stimulus and response. On a macro level, plot has a beginning, middle, and an ending. 25

Plot refers to the series of events that give a story its meaning and effect. In most stories, there events arise out of conflict experienced by the main character. The conflict may come from something external, like a dragon or an overbearing mother, or it may stem from an internal issues, such as jealousy, loss of identify, or overconfidence. As the character makes choices and tries to resolve the problem, the story’s action is shaped and plot is generated. In some stories, the author structures the entire plot chronologically, with the first event followed by the second, third and so on, like beads on a string. However, many other stories are told with flashback techniques in which plot events from earlier times interrupt the story’s “current” events.

The important elements of plot:

- Conflict: the basic tension, predicament, or challenge that propels a story’s plot.
- Complications: plot events that plunge the protagonist further into conflict.
- Rising action: the part of a plot in which the drama intensifies, rising toward the climax.
- Climax: the plot’s most dramatic and revealing moment, usually the turning point of the story.
- Resolution: the part the plot after the climax, when the drama subsides and the conflict is resolved.
3. Setting

Setting the location and time of a story is its overall context where, when and in what circumstance the action occurs.\(^{26}\)

There are three kinds of setting:

- Setting as place: the physical environment where the story takes place. The description of the environment often points toward its importance.

- Setting time: includes time in all of its dimension. To determine the importance ask "what was going on at that time?"

- Setting as cultural context: setting also involves the social circumstance of the time and place. Consider historical events and social and political of the time.

4. Theme

Theme is related to the other element of fiction more as a consequence than as a parallel element that can be separately.\(^{27}\)

The theme of a work of literature is as we have seen what it has to say—it basic subject. Our view of the theme of a work as a whole will have some closeness related to our view of every part and aspect of the style and placement of an item of description on the first page, the handling of minor character or episode in the middle, the particular language, meaning and feeling of last sentence.

\(^{26}\)Robert W. Boynton, Introduction to the short Story, New Jersey: Hayden Book Company, 1972, 58

5. Point of view

In the story with the objective point of view, the writer shown what happen without directly stating more than reader can infer from its action and dialogue. The narrator, does not tell us anything about the characters thinks of feel. He remains a detached observe. People may see thought the eyes of a good-like narrator, who may be aloof,or ever-ready with comment. May people see thought the eye of the central character, or minor one, or a number of differently-placed and different biased observers.

Types of point of view:

a. First person is used when the main character is telling the story.

This is kind that uses the “I “narrator”. As a reader, you can only experience the story through this person’s eyes. So you won’t know anything about the people or events that this character hasn’t personally experienced.

First person peripheral : this is when the narrator is a supporting character in the story, not the main character. It still uses the “I “narrator but since the narrator is not the protagonist, there are events and scenes that will happen to the protagonist that the \[\text{ibid ,71}\]

narrator will not have access to.

b. Second person point of view:

Second person point of view is generally only used in instructional writing. It is told from the perspective of “you”

c. Third person point of view:

Third person point of view is used when your narrator is not a character in the story. Third person uses the “he/she/it” narrator and it is the most commonly used point of view writing.

There are 3 main types of third person point of view:

- Third person limited: limited means that point of view is limited to only one character. This means that the narrator only known what that character knowns. With third person limited you can choose to view the action from right inside you can chosee to view the action from right inside the character’s head r from further away, where the narrator has more access to information outside the protagonist’s view point.

- Third person Multiple: This type is still in the “he/she/it” category, but now the narrator can follow multiple characters in the story. The challenge is making sure that the reader known when you are switching from one character to another.
Make the switch obvious with chapter or section breaks

- Third person Omniscient: this point of view still uses the “he/she/it” narration but now the narrator knows everything. The narrator isn’t limited by what one character knows, sort of like the narrator is god. The narrator can know things that others don’t, can make comments about what’s happening, and can see inside the minds of other characters.

At night Anna waked Elsa and invited her to play and use her power. Anna invited Elsa to make a snowman. Because so excited, accidentally Anna was hurt in her head by Elsa called the King and Queen. They immediately brought Anna to the Trolls.

While Hans, tried to make Elsa weak and killed her a sword. Anna saw the incident. She immediately ran toward Hans and Elsa. She sacrificed herself to save Elsa soshe completely Frozen.

Elsa was very sad. She hugged Anna. Now, Anna knew that her true love was Elsa. Elsa’s hug made Anna and Arendelle back to normal. Whereas Hans, he got his punishment because of his deed. He entered into the jail. Finally Anna and Elsa could restore summer and Arendelle back to normal. Anna and Elsa could play together again. Elsa could control herself. Finally, everyone was happily ever after.

C. The Research Method

In this research, the writer used the descriptive qualitative research. It is library research to describe, discuss, and analyze the problem of the study. It goes beyond mere fact and surface appearances. It presents detail, emotion, context and the webs of social relationship that join persons to one another. Thick description evokes emotionality and self-feelings. It inserts history into experience. It establishes the significance of an experience, or the sequence of events, for the person or person in question, in thick description, the voices, feelings, actions, and meanings of interacting individual are heard. Qualitative researcher focuses on the study of social phenomena and on giving voice to the feeling and perceptions of the participants under study. This is understanding social knowledge is a legitimate scientific process.$^{30}$

Moral value is related to human behavior and personality. The moral value are also associated with human nature. In society, people with judge in a good value when they have good behavior, personality, and nature. In addition they also always obey to the rules of that society. Frozen movie is one of movie that has many rules moral lessons. The movie tells us about family love. Audiences can get many lessons from this movie. The second powerful lesson found in frozen is that of familial, sisterly love and how far family will go to protect one another.

D. The Research Object

The research object from this movie is the characters in frozen that is directed by Chris Buck and Lee.

E. Data Source

a. Primary data source

The primary data source is taken from the frozen screen play that is written by Jennifer Lee.

b. Secondary data source

The secondary data source is taken from many kinds of books and relevant materials such as books of literature theory, moral and value. Most of them are found in electronic library (en.bookfi.org.) and google book.

F. The Time of Study

This research takes places at SMK Karya Fajar on Petir street, Serang-Banten. The writer chooses this school with the reason of:

A. This school has never been researched. So, it makes the writer challenged to do research here.

B. The location of this school is easy research from the writer live.

The time of this research carried out on February up to March 2019.

G. The Technique of Data Collecting

This research used two ways in collecting data. Those are Test and Documentation. Those ways are used because the data are taken from “frozen” movie. Those ways are suitable in order to get and collect the data from “frozen” movie. Documentation in this data collection technique means taking the data obtained throught the documents which have important relation to the research object. So ,in this research, the writter takes the screen play of “frozen” movie to complete the data.

What people do may differ from what they say they do, and observation provides a reality check; observation also enables a researcher to look afresh at every-day behavior that otherwise might be taken for granted, expected or go unnoticed and the approach with its carefully prepared recording schedule avoids problems caused when there is a time gap between the act of observation and the recording of the event. In this research, the writer test and documentation the frozen movie to find out the moral values from this movie.

H. The Technique of Data Analyzing

Qualitative data analysis involves organizing, accounting for and explaining the data; in short, making sense of data in terms of the participants’ definitions of the situation, nothing patterns, themes, categories and regulatrites. In this researcher the writer does the following steps to analyze the data source:

1. Watch the movie for several times.
2. Collect the data source.

According Miles & Huberman (1992:16) there are three steps to analyze the data source:

1. Reduction data
2. Presentation of data

2. Discussion

A. Moral value in frozen movie
   1. Cooperation

   According to Linda Eyre cooperation is arrangement in which two or more entities engage in a mutually beneficial exchange instead of competing. Cooperation can happen where resources adequate for both parties exist or are created by their interaction.

   The role of cooperation in human being life is very important. If we work together, something will be more easily and quickly done. Beside, cooperation also maintains harmony among others. In a society we live with many people. If we always work together and have good intentionin collaborated with good deed, our live will be peaceful and harmonious.

   There are two scenes/dialogue about cooperation in"Frozen”movie.

   a. Anna, Kristoff, Olaf, and Sven cooperated to go North Mountain for finding Elsa so that they can bring back summer.

      Anna: Olaf, did Elsa build you?

      Olaf: yeah, why?

      Anna: do you know where she is?
Olaf : yeah, why ?

Anna : do you think you could show us the way?

Olaf : yeah, why? Stop it, Sven. Trying to focus here. (to Anna) yeah, why ?

Kristoff: I ‘ll tell you why. We need Elsa to bring back summer.

Olaf : Summer? So, come on! Elsa;s this way. Let’s go bring back summer !

Anna : Im coming.

2. Carefulness

Carefulness is an action to keep our safety. We have to be careful in action. If we are not careful in our daily lives, we will get accident easily. So we must be careful at any time and wherever we are.

There are two dialogue found in “ Frozen”movie indicated the carefulness. They are as follows:

a. Anna was injured in her head by Elsa power magic when was playing with Elsa. (00:05:18-00:05:30)

   Young Anna : Again! Again !

   Young Elsa : Slow down !
Elsa ought to be more careful when using power. Likewise Anna she also should be more careful.

3. Love and Affection

Individual and personal caring that goes both beneath and beyond loyalty and respect. Love for friends, neighbors, even adversaries. And a prioritized, lifelong commitment of love for family.

In a society, love and affection should is necessary. Human beings should love each other. This is done to avoid dispute and disunion. In addition, love and affection have purpose to maintain harmony in everyday life.

We also should each other in a family. Love with parents and brother/sisters. We can show our affection by sacrificing ourselves to the people we care about.

There are dialogue in Frozen movie indicated love and Affection. They are as follows:

a. Elsa cried and called the King and Queen. She was worried about Anna’s safety who injured by her power.(00:05:31-00:06:20).

  Young Elsa : MAMA ! PAPA !

  King : Elsa, what have you done? This is getting out hand!

Queen : Anna!

Elsa : It was an accident. I'm sorry, Anna.

Queen : She's ice cold.

4. Humanity

Humane is an attitude that having or showing compassion, sympathy, consideration or benevolence to others. In social life, humane is also needed because human beings should love each other. Compassionate people will show their awareness by always making people feel happy. They will treat people with kindness and compassion. They love the people sincerely.

The dialogues about the example of humane in this movie:

a. Trolls want to adopt Kristoff and Sven.

Kristoff : Trolls…?

Bulda : Shush. I'm trying to listen

Bulda : Cuties. I'm gonna keep you.

5. Self control

Self control is the ability to control oneself, in particular one’s emotions and desires or the expression of them in one’s behavior, especially in difficult situations. We are expected to always be able to control ourselves wherever we are. If we can control our actions and speech, we will not hurt others.

In public life we should be able to control ourselves so that do not make others injured. We can control ourselves by talking the breath and having positive thinking.

There are two dialogue about self control in this movie:

a. Trolls advised Elsa to control her power. If he couldn’t control her power she could hurt someone else. If he couldn’t control her power else.(00:06:1-00:07:54)

   Pabbie : Listen to me elsa, your power will only grow. There is beauty in your magic, but also great danger. You must learn to control it. Fear will be your enemy.

b. Elsa was afraid she finaly came out and met a lot of people. She was afraid that people would know about her power. She tried to control her power.

   Elsa : Don’t let them in don’t let them see. Be the good girl you always have to be

6. Share

Sharing in a attitude about providing what the fancy he had for others. In society we are expected to share. If we have something more we can share other people, because other people may need it.
People who like to share called benefactors. While people who do not like to share, they called stingy.

Here are the example of sharing this movie:

a. Hans gave blankets to citizen because of their cold. He also offered a soup and warm drinks. (00:49:44-00:49:54)

   Hans: Cloak. Does anyone need a cloak?

   Citizen: Arendelle is indebted to you, Your Highness.

   Hans: The castle is open. There’s soup and hot glogg in the Great Hall

   Hans: Here. Pass these out.

7. Sorry and Apologizing

   Sorry is defined by Merriam Webster as “feeling sorrow, regret, or penitence,”mournful,sad”, inspiring sorrow, pity,scorn or ridicule, pitifull. Contemptible, sad, pitiful, contrite and pathetic are synonyms for sorry.

   In society sorry and apologizing are indispensable. If we have faults we should apologize so that we can continue the next life without problems and guilt. We should not be afraid or embarrassed for asking apology. If we are embarrassed or afraid for asking apology they will aways filled with guilt, so they can’t continue living in peace.

34 Doug Wojcieszak, James W. Saxton and Maggie M. Finkelstein, Sorry Work,( USA: Author House, 2007), 11
Here are the example about sorry and apologizing in this movie:

a. Anna felt guilty for making Elsa angry (00:30:05 – 00:30:20)

   Anna : It was an accident. She was scared. She didn’t mean it. She didn’t mean any of this..to night was my fault. I pushed her. So I’m the one that needs to go after her.

   Duke : Yes, Fine do

   Hans : what ?

b. Anna apologized for making Elsa angry and going away from Arendelle. (00:54:34-00:54:47)

   Anna : I ‘m so sorry about what happened. If I’d known.

   Elsa : No, its okay. You don’t have to apologize. But you should probably go, please.

   Anna : But I just got here

   Elsa : You belong in Arendelle

   Anna : so do you.

8. Confidence

   Beingable to communication confidently mean being ableto achieve the desire goals without bother others. A confident communicator is someone who knows his strengths and weaknesses, has high self-esteem, knows his subject matter, has lots of energy, passion and enthusiasm (this doesn’t mean to say he is hyperactive but communicates enthusiasm for his subject) has a clear voice, is firm and persuasive uses words that his listener can relate to, tailors his message to his audience, has good body language, has good listening skills, has good questioning and summarizing skills, makes you feel valued, appreciated and comfortable has a sense of empathy with his listener, has an open mind and is able to encourage a free flow of ideas, give a considered response when needed, is able to build rapport and adapt his approach, depending on who he is talking to. If we have strong confidence we will easy to speak publicly without shame and fear.

Here are the dialogue about confidence in “Frozen” movie.

a. Anna confident when asked for help to Kristoff to bring her to North mountain even thought they had just met. (00:39:27-00:40:13)

Anna : Nice duet

Kristoff : Oh its just you. What do you want?

Anna : I want you to take me up the North mountain

35 Pauline Rowson, Communicating with more confidence,(England: Rrownmark Limited,2005),16-18
Kristoff: I don’t take people places.

Anna: let me rephrase that..

Kristoff: Umph..

Anna: Take me up the North mountain... please

b. Anna confident when met Elsa and took her back to Arendelle.

(00:54:06-00:54:55)

Anna: Elsa? Its me .. Anna?

Elsa: Anna

Anna: Elsa, you look different...it’s a good different..and this place is amazing.

Elsa: Thank you, I Never knew what I was capable of Anna: I m so sorry about what happened. If I ‘d known...

Elsa: No its okay. You don’t have to apologize.. but you should probably go, please.

Anna: but I just got here.

Elsa:.. you belong in Arendelle

Anna: so do you.

9. Bravery

Daring to attempt things that are good. Strength not to follow the crowd, to say no and mean it and influence others by it. Being true to convictions and following good implues even when they are unpopular or inconvenient. Boldness to be outgoing and friendly.

In human live being bravery is needed. Brave people are who are not easy to give up. They are never afraid to do. They dare to get the risk of what he did. We have to think positive and believe we can it to be a brave people.

The dialogue in Frozen movie indicated bravery:

a. Elsa was afraid her power will be stronger and can hurt people

(00:28:08-00:28:37)

Duke: there she it! Stop her!

Elsa: please just stay away from me. stay away!

_Elsa should not fear because fear is her greatest enemy. If she is afraid her power will be stronger and can hurt others._

10. Responsibility

Responsibility, like right, duties, obligations, justice and fairness, is a concept employed by law in the ordering, regulation and resolution of conflicts in human life. Responsibility is a concept with many different meanings ranging across accountability, answerability, responsibility for, responsible behavior, being made to take responsibility or as a corollary to right. 36

The people responsible will do the obligations he should do. He dares to take the risk of what he is doing. In society we have to be responsible, for example: If we have mistakes we must apologize and take responsibility for our mistakes and if we are given the responsibility we have to do it with sincerity.

Here are the example of dialogue about responsibility in this movie:

a. Elsa was responsible for making Arrendelle freeze. She returned Arendelle to normal so that citizens become happy. (01:28:04-01:28:47)

  Anna: I knew you could do it.

  Olaf: Hands down, this is the best day my life.. and quite possibly the last.

  Elsa: Oh, Olaf. Hang on, little guy.

11. Loyalty

Loyalty to family, to employers, to country, cruch, schools, and other organizations I which commitments are made. Support, service, contribution. Reability and consistency in doing what you say you will do.

Here the example of dialogue about loyalty in this movie:

a. Kristoff still faithful to help Anna even though she had made him almost hurt and destroyed his sled. (00:43:55-00:44:20)
Anna: And I understand if you don’t want to help me anymore.

Kristoff: Of course I don’t want to help her anymore. In fact, this whole thing has ruined me for helping anyone ever again.

Kristoff (As sven): But she’ll die her own.

Kristoff: I can live with that.

12. Honesty

Honesty means being truthful. Honesty people do not lie or cheat. Be honesty to yourself, your parents, and your friends. People will trust you if you are honesty.37

The word “Honesty” is used as a straightforward synonym fpr frankness, or for sincerity. The difference is quite simple: to be frank is nothing more than truly to say what you think: and to be sincere is nothing more than truly to mean what you say. But what I would call’radical’ honesty means being truly open to what other may have to say.

It means being truly open even to people with very different viewpoints from your own, shaped by different cultural traditional and contexts, and very different personal experiences of life- people with, as a result, often quite opposite opinions to your own. It means

not lying to them—and not lying to yourself, either, in order to evade their critical judgement of you of what you represent in that sense, actually being quite suspicious of yourself.\(^{38}\)

The dialogue in frozen movie about honesty. They are as follows:

a. Hans lied to Elsa. He said that Anna had died because of her deed. She killed her own sister. At that time, he took the opportunity to kill her. (01:25:06-01:26:28)

Hans : Elsa, You can’t run from this !
Elsa : just take care of my sister.
Hans : Your sister? She returned from the mountain weak and cold . She said you frozen her heart.
Hans : I tried to save her, but it was too late.her skin was ice. Her hair turned white…
Hans : Your sister is dead… because of you.
Hans was dishonest people Anna betrayed him, then he will be rewarded accordingly.

The word character has several meaning some one is “a character” when mean that person is unusual, peculiar, or unique in some way. In drama, however, character is not static, but in motion. Character is background who wants/does action.\textsuperscript{39}

In a story, there are major and minor characters. Major character is the most important character in a story. Then, the minor character is the main person that support the major character.\textsuperscript{40} The character in”Frozen” movie are as following:

power to create ice and snow. It was a beautiful ability, but also extremely dangerous.

When Elsa was younger, she injured Anna. After witnessing her magic nearly caused her sister death, Elsa had lived in fear and trauma in her life she became too terrified to let her powers become stronger. She consequently chose isolation from everyone she cared about, including Anna. She did it years of lenoliness.

Elsa came out from her isolation when her parents (King and Queen of Arendelle) were died, and se was crown to be the queen of Arendelle. As the queen of Arendelle, Elsa appeared calm reserved, and wise. In her coronation, Elsa was angry. She couldn’t control her power. Finally she decided to go away from Arendelle and got freedom.

At the end the story, Elsa could control her power. She could bring back summer and make Arendelle be normal.

b. Ana

Anna is one of princess in Arendelle. She is the main protagonist in “Frozen” movie. She is the youngers sister of the powerful Elsa. She is voiced by Kristen Bell.

Anna unlike Elsa. She is not as strength as her sister. She doesn’t have power like her sister. She is a brave girl and always cheerful. She really likes for making snowmen.
Unlike her older sister Elsa, Anna is very optimistic, cheerful, and far from elegant. She is also a pure and hopeless romantic, dreaming of romance the moment the gates are finally opened for Elsa’s coronation ceremony. There can also be a little naive to her, as she believes in marrying someone immediately.

In the end, despite her numerous flaws, Anna is an extremely sweet, selfless, and loving character. During the film, she puts the safety and well-being of others before her own, showing great loyalty and amazement for her friends and family, which was especially seen with Elsa.

c. Kristoff

Kristoff Bjorgman is the full name of Kristoff. He is the tritagonist of animated feature film Frozen. He is a courageous mountain man. He is voiced by Jonathan Groff.

He is a rugged individualist and a kind of a loner. He is his own man and the guy who feels he doesn’t need anyone in his life. Sven is his best friend along his life. He was an ice harvester.

Kristoff is a bit of an individualist and acts as a loner. He can also be rather grumpy and selfish at times, as well as a bit lazy. But with all these flaws comes a heart of gold as well, as the ice harvester has shown multiple times throughout the film that he has a loving hearts and deeply cares for those who treat him with love and sympathy in return, such as Sven, the trolls and later Anna.

d. Olaf

Olaf is a snowman made by Elsa when he fled from the kingdom. Previously, Elsa and Anna like to make snowman and they naming Olaf, up to the time Elsa isolated from the kingdom, and he made a snowman with his magic. The snowman is alive with the named Olaf. He is voiced by Josh Gad.

Olaf is based on a snowman Anna and Elsa created when they were young and has a powerful connection with Elsa. He is not only her living creation, but also the physical representation of Elsa’s happiness and desire to be with her sister again like they were when they were children. Olaf very likes summer.

e. Hans

Hans is the prince of the Southern Isles, a trade partner of Arendelle. He is the main antagonist in “Frozen” Movie. He is voiced by Santino Fontana. Not much was known about the princes past however, he is the youngest of the thirteen brothers, and felt somewhat neglected amongs his brothers.

Knowing he would never rule the throne of Southerns Isles, Hans planed a scheme to marry into monarcy elsewhere, eventually setting his sights on the kingdom of Arendelle. Unlike Elsa, Hans promises he’ll never shut Anna out; he just might be the connection she’s been waiting for all these years. Han’s plans changed after realizing that the queen is like to be alone and less mature younger sister Anna. He has plans to Kill Queen Elsa after their marriage, which would result in him becoming king. In the end, Anna and Elsa know about Han’s plans and finally he being jailed for his crimes.

Sven is the Reindeer. He is one of the primary character in Frozen movie. Sven is the loyal pet reindeer and companion of Kristoff. Together, the duo run an ice harvesting business and reside outside the city of Arendelle in the Valley of the Living Rock, where a communicacy of trolls thrive.

Sven is Kristoff’s loyal friends, sleigh puller and conscience. He is a large, tan reindeer with brown eyes. He wears a red harness around his body. He had tufts of white fur in a dusty pattern around his neck, back and hooves. The top of his head is a copper-brown color, unlike the rest of his body.

Sven is goofy, loyal and rather childish. He spends most of the film by Kristoff’s side. And while sven may not seen incredibly intelligent, he does have a strong moral character. Throughout the film, he constantly convinces Kristoff to do the right thing, including assisting Anna in her journey to find Elsa, and later returning to Arendelle to express his love for the Princess.

B. Minor Characters

The minor characters in “Frozen” movie are as follows:

a. Father /King and Mother/Queen

King and Queen of Arendelle named King Agdar and Queen Idun are Elsa and Anna’s Parents. They are minor characters in the “Frozen” movie. They were the rulers of Arendelle until their deaths. King Agdar is voiced by Maurice La Marche and Queen Idun is voiced by Jennifer Lee.

Judging by how he presents himself, Agdar is learned, kind, powerful and diligent. Idun appears to be far more passive than her husband, though given the obvious motherly nature needed to raise Anna and Elsa. With that, it was clear that the rulers’ primary priority is their daughters, willing to make large sacrifices to ensure their safety due to Elsa’s unique abilities. And despite Elsa’s powers, they don’t fear her in the least, giving her just as much affection as Anna, and are even willing to make physical contact with her, ut eventually decided against doing so, as Elsa prefers it that way, fearful that she might hurt them. And although they have faith in Elsa that she’ll one day completely control her abilities.

On day. The king and queen are to set off on a two-week sea voyage (their intended destination is unknown). During a storm, they presumably drowned at sea by monstrous waves. Anna and all the people of Arendelle mourn their deaths (a portrait of the couple is draped over with a black sheet of fabric), but Elsa doesn’t attend the funeral out of fear of her powers being revealed and someone getting hurt as a result, even though as the eldest sister, she’s the heir to the throne.

The Duke also has two burly bodyguard at his disposal, though they rarely speak and usually stand by the diminutive royals side to protect from any and all harm. Even so, they do find their boss’ character rather odd, considering their facial expressions during their introduction on Elsa’s coronation day.

In relation to Arendelle, the Duke of Weselton controls the trading business between the two kingdoms, and notes that he’s Arendelle’s closest parter in trade. The Duke of Weselton is no way heartless or evil. He is, however, heavily pompous, ignorant, and greedy, though its portrayed in a humorous manner throughout the film. Thought invited to Arendelle for the coronation of Queen Elsa, the Duke was far more interested in exploring Arendelle’s tradable goods, as he’s the representative of Weselton, Arendelle’s history, wanting to know why the castle gates were locked for so many years, and why castle grounds were off limits to outsiders, showing a nosy side of the dignitary. The Duke is very greedy, a bold faced person who mostly wants for himself and could care less about others.
