yanwar Pribadi:

We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Al-Jami'ah: Journal of Islamic Studies, "Identity Contested: Cultural Resilience in the Midst of Islamization of Politics".

Our decision is to:

The article is well written and promising. It is worth publication in Al Jamiah. There are few thing however to be looked through again by the author;

1. The referencing; not bodynote but footnote (please refer to author guidelines)
2. The consistency of mention names; dedi or Dedi Mulyadi in the text.
3. The methods of the research need to be conveyed in Introduction; the author need also to show the approach, how he did the research, then needs also to be demonstrated in references.
4. no review on previous work and need more updated literature.

Best
